Back To British GT for Stanley in 2014

Jamie Stanley will return to the Avon Tyres British GT Championship in 2014 alongside Paul Mcneilly in his first full season in the GT4 class of the prestigious championship.

Stanley who won the championship in 2010 driving a Ginetta G50 alongside Speedworks team owner Christian Dick will Join Mcneillys owned Fox Motorsport team in the all new Ginetta G55 GT4 car.

"I'm delighted to be rejoining the British GT family and even more so looking forward to working with the Fox Motorsport guys as I've done a few races for them in the past they have a great passion and although a step up for both them and Paul I'm hoping my experience will help them become a serious challenger' Said Stanley
